JOB PURPOSE

Working as part of a clinical team to provide a Psychotherapy service within Outcomes First Group (OFG). To work collaboratively with OFG services, promoting the wellbeing and best interests of the specific client group and the effectiveness of the service in achieving its aims and objectives. To undertake all aspects of Psychotherapeutic clinical duties, working within the ethical framework provided by the rules of professional conduct. To offer a Psychotherapy service for the specific client group, through direct involvement with them and through working with others that support the client group. To provide advice, information, consultation, reflective practice and training to staff, other members of the clinical team, commissioners, and other agencies regarding the client group.

Outcomes First Group

KEY TASK AREAS & RESPONSIBILITIES: PROFESSIONAL AND CLINICAL

Clinical

- To offer a specialist Psychotherapy service in the specified geographical area.
- To ensure that teams have access to a Psychotherapeutic based framework for the understanding and care of clients, through advice, consultation and the dissemination of knowledge and theory.
- To provide specialist training, reflective practice, consultation, observation, explanation and modelling to staff within the services and support them to carry out their tasks, including implementation of interventions, approaches and strategies to support the client group.
- Represent the Psychotherapy service and/or individual clients at multi-disciplinary meetings, to ensure the delivery of a co-ordinated multidisciplinary service, integrating Psychotherapeutic knowledge where relevant.
- To work collaboratively with education and/or care staff, as a key member of the multidisciplinary team, working together to set targets and as part of an 'assess, plan, do and review' model to support the client group.
- To undertake direct intervention with some members of client group, both at individual and group levels.
- To work with own caseload and to provide specialist assessment, intervention and evaluation under the management of Lead Clinician and in consultation with key adults involved.
- To make decisions about Psychotherapeutic intervention options taking into account: OFG approved approaches; relevant evidence-based research, theory and practice; and complex factors concerning historical and development processes which have shaped the specific client group and their families.

Outcomes
First Group

- To use OFG approved outcome measures, and other approved methods of evaluation, to monitor and review impact and progress, reassessing and altering interventions/recommendations accordingly following analysis of outcomes.
- To support client group to have a voice, acting as advocates for them when their voice is not understood or heard.
- To ensure appropriate liaison with professionals from external agencies in relation to shared cases, including agencies working with the specific client groups and their carers.
- To participate in the process of the assessment of referrals into the service on request/as part of OFG process.
- To be responsible for monitoring and evaluating risk to/from the specific client group within own caseload.
- To communicate and share information in a highly skilled and sensitive manner with young people, families, other professionals and agencies using the highest levels of interpersonal skills in situations which are likely to be highly emotive, upsetting and/or confrontational.
- To maintain the highest standards of clinical record keeping and report writing, being responsible for maintaining and sharing accurate and comprehensive records in line with the appropriate professional bodies standards of practise and OFG's ways of working.
- To model standards of best practice and professional responsibility in line with 'Care Quality Commission' outcomes (relevant only to care services) and the principles of Clinical Governance within professional regulations and standards of behaviour as detailed within relevant Psychotherapy professional bodies. Ensure that standards of clinical excellence are maintained at all times.

Service Development and Research

- To work closely with clinical and education/care colleagues, using Psychotherapy skills to enhance the development of the service via: capacity building staff; embedding companywide approaches; and, where relevant and appropriate, informing policies/processes/protocols.
- To support in promoting, initiating, implementing, embedding and evaluating agreed service developments, approaches and projects.
- To keep up to date knowledge of legislation, national and local policies and issues relevant to the service, continuously using this knowledge to help improve service delivery.

Outcomes
First Group

• To use OFG approved service evaluation and monitoring tools to evaluate, review and improve on clinical service delivery.

- To utilise theory, evidence-based literature and research to support evidence-based practice and contribute to the development of best practice within the service.
- To participate in clinical team meetings and relevant working groups, supporting local service development and to generate written protocols and policies concerned with the delivery and development of wider clinical services by providing a psychotherapy perspective.
- To contribute to the overall ethos/work/aims of the company.
- To contribute to relevant research, projects and pilot studies as agreed.
- To be responsible for the prudent efficient and effective use of equipment and resources within the service, ensuring awareness that the service operates to agreed budgets and contributing to keeping within these budgets as instructed.

Supervision

- To provide clinical supervision as appropriate to peers/Psychotherapy colleagues within OFG, using OFG clinical supervision methods and guidance provided by relevant clinical regulatory bodies.
- To ensure that engagement with own clinical supervision is maintained, in line with regulatory body requirements and OFG clinical supervision methods.

Managing own Performance and Development

- To maintain awareness of and complying with current policies and procedures relating to safeguarding, child protection, health, safety and security, confidentiality and data protection, and reporting all concerns to an appropriate designated person.
- To maintain up to date knowledge of OFG guidelines and of national local standards and monitor own and others quality of practice as appropriate.
- To engage with OFG processes and platforms (including clinical forums) to maintain up to date knowledge of service and companywide developments.
- To engage in line management meetings, performance management and appraisal processes as required, setting and achieving challenging professional targets and carrying out agreed personal development programmes to meet targeted knowledge and competencies.

- To be responsible for maintaining own competency to practice through OFG approved CPD activities and supervision, maintaining a portfolio which reflects personal development.
- To actively participate in CPD activities, including completing all OFG mandatory training to deadlines.
- To exercise professional responsibility based on the HCPC's Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics or other Psychotherapy regulatory body codes of conduct.
- To maintain and develop current knowledge of evidenced-based practice, developing specialist knowledge of particular conditions and client types.

Health, Safety and Well-Being

- To monitor and promote own positive emotional and physical wellbeing and fitness to practice, including (but not limited to) ensuring a healthy life and work balance, accessing relevant resources, tools and processes available via OFG and accessing additional support if/when required, working with line managers and supervisors when needed.
- To contribute to a safe and secure environment for people who use our services. In carrying out the tasks in this job description you have a duty (under Health & Safety legislation) to take reasonable care for the health and safety of yourself and that of others. This implies: taking positive steps to understand, report and/or remedy all hazards in the workplace; to comply with safety rules and procedures; and to ensure that you undertake all duties in a manner calculated to minimise or avoid unnecessary risks, personally or to others.
- To remain vigilant and do everything possible to protect people who use our services, and others, from abuse of a physical, emotional, sexual, neglectful, financial or institutional nature. This includes an absolute requirement to know how to identify potential abuse or neglect and follow safeguarding procedures, reporting any incident of this nature you witness, hear or suspect. Being aware of the current legal requirements, national policies and guidance on the safeguarding and promotion of the well-being of client group.
- To know how to identify and support our client group when progress, development or wellbeing is affected by changes or difficulties in their personal circumstances, and when to refer them to other colleagues and external agencies.

Outcomes
First Group

To work within infection control, risk management and Health & Safety guidelines to deal appropriately with unpleasant conditions relating to client contact as they arise, for example: exposure to body fluids.

Administrative and IT

- To support the organisation, co-ordination and minute taking of meetings as required.
- To maintain the highest standards of clinical record keeping and management of clinical files (using OFG approved methods and templates), including electronic data entry and storage.
- To safely distribute/share relevant Psychotherapy based documents, and any other relevant documentation as required, in line with 'GDPR' and OFG guidance.
- To develop a skill base in the administration and analysis of a range of packages as required.
- To be competent in the use of basic IT packages and platforms such as Microsoft Word, Excel, Power Point, Share Point TEAMS, Zoom.
- To use OFG branded materials and resources where appropriate.

General

- To operate at all times in accordance with company policies and procedures, with particular reference to Safeguarding, Child Protection, Whistleblowing, Complaints and Representations and Behaviour Policies.
- To promote the service as a valued asset within its community and promote a culture that reinforces this image via appropriate conduct at all times.
- To work to and exhibit the values of OFG and maintain standards of behaviour in accordance with OFG policies, procedures and practices.
- To ensure that all actions are in the interests of the people we support and OFG.
- To be flexible to the demands of the environment, including unpredictable work patterns, deadlines, and frequent interruptions.
- To carry out any other reasonable and relevant duties as required within OFG

The above serves as a guide and is not an exhaustive list of duties and responsibilities: the postholder may be required to undertake other duties as reasonably required by their Line Manager / Lead Clinician / Clinical Operational Lead. This job description will be reviewed regularly in the light of changing service requirements and any such changes will be discussed with the postholder.
