- To implement agreed individual educational/behavioural programmes.
- To promote the social and emotional development of pupils through positive approaches that will encourage appropriate relationships and the development of self-esteem.
- To accompany class groups on external educational visits.
- To assist subject teacher in group and individual behavioural management, within the agreed school framework.

- To assist in classroom organisation and display work.
- To contribute to pupils' annual review reports and progress files.
- To attend staff meetings and contribute constructively on specific issues to encourage the development of agreed whole school policies and procedures.
- To attend briefings and staff meetings
- To participate in In-Service Training including CPI and Staff Development Programmes.
- To eat with the children at lunch time, encouraging appropriate behaviour, social skills and positive interactions.
- To supervise pupils at all times.

Accountability

As a member of staff at the school you will:

- fulfil all aspects of the main tasks identified on your job description
- fulfil all aspects of the job activities identified on your job description
- fulfil the following generic aspects:
 - conduct yourself in a professional manner
 - adhere to the school dress code
 - complete paperwork as and when required

This job description sets out the duties of the post at the time it was drawn up. The post holder may be required from time to time to undertake other duties within the school as may be reasonably expected, without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed. This is a common occurrence and would not justify a reconsideration of the grading of the post.
