- Refer cases to the Disclosure and Barring Service where a person is dismissed or left due to risk or harm to a child.
- Refer cases where a crime may have been committed to the police.
- Keep detailed, accurate and secure written records of concerns and referrals.

Working with staff and other agencies

- Ensure staff can access and understand the school's child protection and safeguarding policy and procedures (especially new and part time staff).
- Inform the Head of School and Executive Headteacher of safeguarding issues, especially ongoing enquiries into whether a child is at risk of harm, and police investigations.
- Liaise with the case manager and the local authority's designated officer for child protection concerns in all cases where a member of school staff is involved e.g. LADO referrals.
- Liaise with staff on matters of safety, safeguarding, and when deciding whether to make a referral.
- Act as a source of support, advice and expertise for staff.
- Understand the assessment process for providing early help and intervention.

- Develop a working knowledge of how local authorities conduct a child protection case conference and a child protection review conference.
- Attend and contribute to child protection case conferences effectively when required to do so.

Training

- Undergo training to develop and maintain the knowledge and skills required to carry out the role.
- Undergo Prevent training and be able to:
 - Support the school in meeting the requirements of the Prevent duty.
 - Provide advice and support to staff on protecting children from the risk of radicalisation.
- Undergo training on female genital mutilation (FGM) and be able to:
 - Provide advice and support to staff on protecting and identifying children at risk of FGM.
 - Report known cases of FGM to the police and help others to do so.
- Refresh knowledge and skills at least annually so remain up to date with any developments relevant to the role.
- Obtain access to relevant resources.
- Deliver whole school CPD to all staff on all safeguarding matters.
- Play an active role in the induction of new staff to ensure all new starters are aware and confident on all safeguarding matters.

Raise awareness

- Ensure the school's child protection policies are known, understood and used appropriately.
- Ensure the school child protection policy is reviewed annually (as a minimum) and the procedures and implementation are updated and reviewed regularly.
- Ensure the safeguarding policy is available and easily accessible to everyone in the school community.
- Link with the local safeguarding children board (LSCB) to make sure staff are aware of training opportunities and the latest local policies on safeguarding
- Be alert to the specific needs of children in need, those with special educational needs and young carers.
- Encourage a culture of listening to children among all staff, ensuring that children's feelings are heard where the school puts measures in place to protect them.
- Ensure the school is aware of any national safeguarding changes and provide annual training on the Keeping Children Safe documentation.

Other areas of responsibility

- Where children leave the school, securely transfer their child protection file to their new school as soon as possible, separately from the main pupil file.
- Undertake safer recruitment training and support the school to follow best practice.
- Provide safeguarding reports to the Executive Head Teacher for governance.
- Model best practice and uphold the principles of confidentiality and data protection at all times.
- Contribute to Health & Safety in the school in accordance to the ISS.

The DSL will be required to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people, and follow school policies and the staff code of conduct.

During term time, the DSL should always be available during school hours for staff in the school to discuss any safeguarding concerns. Ideally this will be in person but can also be via phone or video calling in exceptional circumstances.

Please note that this list of duties is illustrative of the general nature and level of responsibility of the role. It is not a comprehensive list of all tasks that the DSL will carry out. The postholder may be required to do other duties appropriate to the level of the role.
